WESTSIDE NEWSLETTER

Supported by Westside Resource Centre and Galway City Partnership - Westside Project

Special Screening of 'Mise Éire'

As part of the continuing commemoration of the events of 1916, Westside Resource Centre will host a special screening of the classic documentary created by George Morrison and featuring the music of Seán Ó Riada. 'Mise Éire' charts the lead-up to and the aftermath of the 1916 Rising.

The period covered in the film (1896-1918) was one of the most momentous in recent Irish history. In 'Mise Éire', history can be seen precisely as it happened before the eyes of newsreel cameramen who were present at critical developments.

'Mise Éire' will be screened in Westside Resource Centre on Tuesday 19th April. This coincides with the centenary of the events surrounding the aborted landing of German weapons on Bannagh Strand in Co. Kerry.

Places are limited, so make sure to contact the resource centre on 091-528325 or info@westsideresourcecentre.ie to reserve your seat.

Westside Arts Festival 2016

Dates Confirmed

The organising committee of Westside Arts Festival has confirmed the dates for this year's event. The Festival will start on Monday 4th July and run until Saturday 9th July. Watch this space for more details.

International Women's Day

Westside Resource Centre celebrated International Women's Day on Tuesday 8th March 2016. A very enjoyable event began with afternoon tea where funds were raised for Gorta – Self Help Africa. This international charity is based in the Resource Centre and works with rural communities to help them improve their livelihoods. Ronan Scully, Development Manager and Fundraiser, gave a very interesting talk on "Women in International Development".

All Ireland Standards for Community Work

Community Work Ireland, on behalf of the All Ireland Endorsement Body for Community Work, Education & Training, has just published a standards document entitled 'All Ireland Standards for Community Work'. This handbook outlines what the scope of community work is and provides a framework of standards to help ensure that "the key values and associated knowledge, skills and qualities required for the practice of effective community development work" are adhered to.

Copies of 'All Ireland Standards for Community Work' are available from Westside Resource Centre.

Classes in Westside Resource Centre

An increasing range of educational providers are opting to use Westside Resource Centre as their venue of choice in the Westside area. Classes and courses are available on topics ranging from creative skills such as writing, painting and music to more practical skills such as yoga and computers.

The classes cater for adults of all ages and walks of life. Westside Resource Centre is situated in the heart of Westside and is an integral part of the community. The building is fully wheelchair accessible and offers comfortable, modern spaces for learning and creativity.

Newly elected TDs Catherine Connolly and Hildegard Naughton attended the event and spoke briefly on the subject of equality for women. The event was rounded off with a wonderful musical recital from Galway Early Music, a group who promote the performance of medieval, renaissance and baroque music in Galway. The afternoon was a great success and was enjoyed by all.

1916 Lecture Series Continues

Ballybane and Westside Libraries, in conjunction with Ballybane and Westside Resource Centres are running a year-long lecture series to commemorate the events of 1916.

Well-known figures such as William Henry and Micheline Sheehy-Skeffington have already given very informative and engaging talks and we look forward to welcoming Tom Kenny to Westside Resource Centre on Wednesday 13th April at 6:30pm.

Further lectures will be presented by Dr Jim Higgins and Dr Catirona Clear, among others, over the coming months. Contact Westside Library on 091-520616 for further details.

Creative Gifts Available from Westside Resource Centre

Westside Resource Centre has received a number of paintings and prints from a very generous anonymous donor. They are now for sale to the general public in order to raise funds for the running of Westside Resource Centre. These unique pieces are priced at a very reasonable level and everyone is encouraged to visit Westside Resource Centre to view the paintings on display in the reception area.

Westside Resource Centre has also produced a collection of twelve greeting cards celebrating the work of local artists and crafts people, many of whom have displayed pieces in Westside Resource Centre over the years. A pack of 12 cards costs €10 and the collection is available from Westside Resource Centre Reception. All proceeds from sale of the cards go towards supporting the services provided by Westside Resource Centre.
